

THE TURF.

at Hot.—The mare again drew the inside, and bore
with the lead at awful pace, reaching the half

[illegible][illegible]

N. E. A.'s HISTORICAL—The old Tipton House on the brow of the hill, in the upper part of the block, looking down upon the V, where the Kas and Bath Branch converge, ought to be assigned to the collection of The House of American Artists, the Balm of Gilead, the Soap and all, for the benefit of the people. The book in which Uncle Sam's and the inevitable Topsy are canonized during Mrs. Stowe's visit is not there. [Brenneke's Monument]

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.
(Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.)
 It has been proposed that the new Orleans Fair in the Crystal Palace as many boxes as it takes in the Union, for the reception of funds in behalf of the Washington Monument.
 The above proposition would not give the far West and Southern States an equal chance, as probably thirteen or fourteen of them, for the district of the origin of the fair, would be required to contribute every six or monthly exhibiting the per cent on State. The box now in use could be retained to contribute and receipts published daily, if not weekly. We make this proposal in behalf of the

RISING ISSUE

[illegible]

ATLANTA.—Philadelphia Destinations. No. 444 Broadway, New York; NEWARK. SENECAVILLE. No. 539 Broadway, New York; PHILADELPHIA. No. 407 N. 2d St., Philadelphia; WASHINGTON. PANORAMA OF NIAGARA FALLS. No. 718 Broadway, New York; HYPOCAUSTS.—Philadelphia afternoon and evening sessions. No. 407 N. 2d St., Philadelphia; NEW YORK. ASYLUM OF MOUNT BLANC. No. 692 Broadway, New York; BELGIUM GARDEN. No. 663 Broadway, New York.

The weather is still sultry and disagreeable. There is but a feeble circulation of air last night, with some protracted showers.

Today the Diablo will be given to-night at Castle Garden, but that cannot fail to attract a full house, especially the coolness of the place is so inviting in these days.

Sontag, Stiefano, Dancy Barré, Salvini and no appear.

THE MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The members of the Independent Arch Masonic Lodge No. 2, and a number of the members from other lodges, in mourning regalia, attended the remains of the late Mr. Henry Partington, of Little Greenwood. The procession moved from the residence of the deceased in Hamersley at 3 o'clock yesterday, to the Cemetery, where the deceased was interred with all the masonic honors.

THE LODGE OF THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FELLOWS.—A meeting of the Grand Lodge of the order of Odd Fellows of Southern New York took place to-night for the election of Grand Officers, and the Master, J. G. Clayton, E. H. Howell, No. 130, St. Peter St., was elected.

THE NEW YORK JOURNAL OF THE DEBTS GRAND

FIVE POINTS MISSION SCHOOL.—A portion of the members of the Five Points Mission School were taken on an excursion yesterday afternoon. It was a pleasant surprise to behold this little band of children with their happy faces, and in neat summer attire. As they were about to start, the minister and choir sang a hymn.

by their preceptors, we could not help contrast the present condition with the filth and misery which they have been rescued, and to hope that there are many laborers of those who have been engaged in this cause will be still more fruitful.

RECALL OF A LONGMEMBER.—At 2 o'clock yesterday, the body of Mr. James Riley was consigned to the grave. His remains were attended from his residence at Calvary Cemetery by his relatives and a number of his brother members of the Longmember U. B. Society, of which Mr. Riley was a prominent and respected member.

RECALL OF A REVOLUTIONARY HERO—ACCIDENT.—A NATIONAL GUARDIAN, in an old Revolutionary were conveyed to their last resting place in Greenwood Cemetery. The body was accompanied to the grave by a hundred members of Continental Guard, Capt. J. C. Holne, Sheldon's Adjutant General, also in attendance. Funeral services were performed over the body of deceased, at his late residence in Twenty-fifth st. by Rev. Mr. Balch. The procession started from Twenty-fifth st. at 3 o'clock. American flag, draped over the casket, was borne by four white horses, with black trappings. The Continental Guard, also in mourning, escorted the casket. The band, who performed appropriate dirges and strains, preceded the military came the friends and relatives, in carriages. The United Americans performed funeral ceremonies of their Order over the grave. The horses attached to one of the stages in the procession returning from Greenwood Cemetery, became shortly before turning from Third-av to the and ran off. The driver was pitched from his becoming entangled in the lines, which were of by a passenger on the top, he was carried a distance, suspended over one of the fore wheel tionally fell to the ground, but luckily escaped over. The extent of his injuries were not ascert as severely hurt, however. When the horses and running the passengers in the stage, comp bers of Capt. Halme's Company of Continental